Immediately after our worship service, we will gather in our dining room to enjoy conversation and a delectable lunch. While planned as a celebratory luncheon to mark the final stage of our Stewardship campaign, this meal will be a festive opportunity for us to catch up with each other and share important and unimportant bits of our lives.

Please plan to participate in this opportunity to enjoy good food, good company and our pleasure in working together to share all that has been imparted to each of us by our most loving God.
